Head of Household Eligibility (To be Completed by Student)

If you are legally married and filed your taxes as Head of Household for 2023, you may need to file an amended tax return (1040X) reflecting the correct filing status. If your tax professional indicated that you were eligible to file as head of household (despite being married), please continue to complete this form. Initial each of the following requirements below, only if the requirement is applicable to your tax filing circumstances.

Only complete the following section if you are legally married and filed a 1040 as Head of Household.

Considered Unmarried: Eligibility Requirements

- ☐ You filed a separate return.
- ☐ You paid more than half the cost to keeping your home for the tax year.
- ☐ Your spouse did not live in your home during the last 6 months of the tax year. Your spouse is considered to live in your home even if he or she is temporarily absent due to special circumstance.
- ☐ Your home was the main home of your child, stepchild, and foster child for more than half the year.
- ☐ You must be able to claim an exemption for the child. However, you meet this test if you cannot claim the exemption only because the non-custodial parent can claim the child.

Head of Household Eligibility Requirements

You may be eligible to file head of household if you meet the requirements below. By initialing next to each requirement you are certifying that you meet this requirement. **See IRS Publication 17****

- ☐ You were Married but considered “Unmarried” on December 31, 2023 (If you initialed All of the previous criteria, initial here).
- ☐ You paid more than half the cost to keeping your home for the tax year.
- ☐ A qualifying person lived with you in the home for more than half the year (except for temporary absences, such as school). However, if the qualifying person is your dependent parent, he or she does not have to live with you.

Section 2: Spouse (If student provided spouse information separately on FAFSA or if applicable)

Please indicate your Spouse's tax filing status as stated on their 2023 Federal Tax Return

- ☐ Single
- ☐ Married Filing Joint
- ☐ Married Filing Separately
- ☐ Head of Household (Additional Documents may be required)
- ☐ Qualifying Widow (er) with Dependent Child (By checking this box you certify you are a qualifying widower and have provided only the surviving spouse's income on the FAFSA)
